Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Jackson Middle School continues to be proud of its progress and the many accomplishments our students have made in the 2008-2009 school year.

Increased opportunities for lifelong learning and development which included standards-based instruction, cutting-edge technology, an across-the-curriculum reading program, a superior band program, expert consultants and instructional coaches, extended-day instructional programs, and progressive clubs and organizations.

Jackson Middle School enjoyed a multitude of successes to including the following: continued improvement in school-wide discipline through positive reinforcements (Business Bucks, Principal's Club, participation in school-wide activities such as PACT Superlatives, incentives for PACT scores, and FIDO); five students were recognized as Junior Scholars for 2008-2009; a math lab was created to provide teachers and students with hands-on activities to improve instruction; the Jackson Middle School Band had 18 students qualify to perform with the Aiken All-County Bands; the Jackson Middle School Band had 10 students to play with the region bands at the Region Two band concert; the Jackson Middle School Band received the Superior rating for the 16th consecutive year at the South Carolina State Concert Band Festival; the South Carolina Band Directors' Association bestowed the Outstanding Performance Award to the Jackson Middle School Band for the 20th consecutive time; the Jackson Middle School girls' basketball team finished the regular season with a record of 10-2 and made the playoffs; the Silver Bluff Bullpups finished the football season as Conference "A" champions; and the PTO sponsored several successful fundraisers for school improvement and staff/student incentives.

The Jackson Middle School teachers and staff participated in a variety of professional development opportunities, including graduate classes and state conferences. Mrs. April Smiley was named Jackson Middle School Teacher of the Year for 2009-2010. Mrs. Shirley Flippin was named Classified Employee of the Year for 2009-2010.

Jackson Middle School remains committed to the tradition of excellence!

School Adequate Yearly Progress YES

This school met 17 out of 17 objectives. The objectives included student performance, graduation rate or student attendance, and participation in the state testing program.

Definition: As required by the United States Department of Education, Adequate Yearly Progress specifies that the statewide target is met for "All Students" and for the following subgroups: Racial/Ethnic, Subsidized Meals, Disability, and Limited English Proficiency in the areas of English/Language Arts and Mathematics, as well as meeting the statewide target for "All Students" for attendance or graduation rate.

School Improvement Status RP-DELAY

School Improvement Key

NI	Newly Identified-The school missed adequate yearly progress (AYP) for two years. Sanction: Offer school choice.
CSI	Continuing School Improvement-The school missed AYP for three years. Sanctions: Continue school choice and implement supplemental services.
CA	Corrective Action-The school missed AYP for four years. Sanction: Continue school choice and supplemental services. The school district takes a corrective action.
RP	Plan to Restructure-Sanctions: Continue school choice and supplemental services. Develop a plan to restructure. If the school misses AYP the next year, the school implements the restructuring plan.
R	Restructure-The school missed AYP after two years of corrective action. Sanctions: Implement the restructuring plan. Continue school choice and supplemental services.
DELAY	The school met AYP in all subgroups and the indicator for one year, thus the delay provision applies. The school remains in the same status as last year and is referred to as in "Delay."
HOLD	The school made progress for one year in the subject area that identified the school for school improvement. The school remains in the same status as last year and is referred to as in "Hold."
